

There are many papers to submit to school when new school term begins

Be sure to submit papers to school by the due date

It is parents' duty to make good environment for your children to have better school life. For that, you should know about school and understand what is written in papers your children brought back from school. FICEC will help you read and write those papers.

In April, children will start new school life such as entering school, or going to the next grade. Various papers are brought back from school in this season.

As it is the start of new grade year, most of them are important information and you should enter and submit many papers to school. You should read and understand them to know your children's school life well and to start new-year smoothly. Children will be relieved when their parents read the papers and understand children's school life.

As children feel nervous especially in new-year season, it is important not to forget to submit the papers to school on due date.

You should enter following papers and submit to school. Some of them are difficult but you should read and understand well before entering.

Be sure to remember the date to submit.

If you do not understand what is written in the papers, bring them to FICEC and we can help you.
